

Joint Northern Forum Summer Conference YCLF/NWBRF/NECLF

Date: 9th July 2013

Venue: The Norcroft Centre, University of Bradford

(<http://www.bradford.ac.uk/business/bradford-conferencing/contact-us/>)

PROGRAMME

- 09.15 - 10.00 Registration – book CPD and lunchtime Re:centre tour
- 10:00 - 10:10 Welcome and introduction. Dr. Mostafa Mohamed, School of Engineering, Design & Technology, University of Bradford
- Chair morning session: Ann Barker, Chair YCLF Steering Group
- 10:10 - 11:10 Ed Stutt, wca environment* & Camilla Pease ENVIRON* - Category 4 Screening Levels (C4SLs): The Project, The Facts and The Numbers
- 11:10 - 11:20 Comfort break (no refreshments)
- 11:20 - 11:45 Helen Peters, Pinsent Mason – A legal practitioner’s view on the revised Part 2A Statutory Guidance and controlled waters
- 11:45 - 12:10 Liz Hart, Environment Agency – Revised Part 2A Statutory Guidance and significant pollution of controlled waters: forthcoming Environment Agency guidance
- 12:10 - 12:40 Panel discussion - Panel Chair: Dr. Richard Boyle, Homes and Communities Agency
- 12:40 - 13:30 Lunch - Including Bradford University Re:centre tour
<http://www.bradford.ac.uk/management/research/research-centres/recentre/> (Book a place on the tour at registration)
- Chair afternoon session: Prof. Phil Morgan, Sirius
- 13:30 - 13:55 Andrew Wiseman, Stephenson Harwood LLP - ‘DEFRA’s Expert Panel – what is it? And what is it not’
- 13:55 - 14:10 Rowan Devlin, East Riding of Yorkshire Council- 'Revised Part 2A Stat Guidance: a YAHPAC proactive response'
- 14:10 - 14:35 Michael Eaglestone, Bradford MDC – 'Should Contamination Risk Assessment Continue to be Frontloaded in the Planning Process under the NPPF: Considering the Implications of a Recent Planning Appeal Decision'
- 14:35 - 15:00 Carol Morgan, Bradford MDC – ‘Rat – pathway – receptor: Breaking the pollutant linkage before site preparation works’
- 15:00 - 15:20 Panel session and summing up
- 15:20 - 16:00 Tea, coffee and networking

* wca and ENVIRON are members of the consortium delivering the Defra C4SL project.

Venue provided by the University of Bradford

Please contact Zoë Cooper (zoe.cooper@esg.co.uk) to book a place

Venue information:

The Norcroft Centre, University of Bradford

<http://www.bradford.ac.uk/business/bradford-conferencing/pricing-and-packages/>

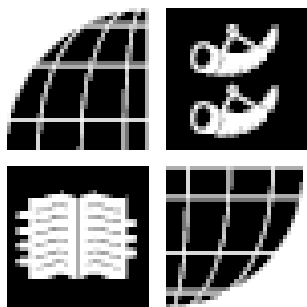

Contact information and how to find:

<http://www.bradford.ac.uk/business/bradford-conferencing/contact-us/>

CPD certificates can be made available electronically after the event. Please indicate at registration and sign in and out to confirm hours.

The Joint Conference YCLF, NWBRF and NECLF are grateful to the University of Bradford for providing the venue. We are also grateful to the following organisations which have co-sponsored refreshments and lunch:

SPONSORS

UNIVERSITY OF BRADFORD
MAKING KNOWLEDGE WORK™

nbc consulting
Next Generation Engineering Consultancy Services

Roundhay Environmental Consulting Limited

